

NEFBA EMERGING LEADERS PROGRAM

Emerging Leaders Program

Program Description: The NEFBA Emerging Leaders Program was created to provide personal and professional development opportunities to rising leaders in our industry. Participants in the program will gain knowledge in a wide variety of skills, including time management, communication, marketing, personal branding, financing, and budgeting. Participants will also learn about the building and development industry from leaders in the field and will have opportunities to network with those same leaders.

Each session will be a half-day once a month from February-October (there will be no classes June & July). In order to ensure maximum participation from the applicants, a letter of recommendation from your supervisor is required. Please submit letters to jspradley@nefba.com.

Submission Instructions: Please use this form to fill out your application. Contact Jessie Spradley at jspradley@nefba.com if you need assistance. Please include resume and brief bio.

Applications are due Friday, December 31st, 2021.

Candidate Criteria: The program is geared towards industry professionals with less than 10 years of experience in their current field. Candidate must attend at minimum 6 of the 7 sessions.
